7. Highways

Chair opened the meeting to the public.

- Problems with speeding motorists between North Street and the end of the 30mph speed limit. Some volunteers available for a community speed watch. Clerk to contact Police Community Officer for information. Sam2 camera can't be placed too close as there is not a post, clerk investigating a new post with Highways.
- Problems with Castle Acre Road flooding and many potholes opening up – Cllr Kiddle-Morris has requested a full investigation from Highways and resurfacing
- Flooding/ blocked drains outside Meadow House, Church Farm and the top of South Street have all been repeatedly reported to Highways. They are still on a list to be done; clerk will keep chasing. There has been severe flooding all over Norfolk since Christmas Eve so Highways are very busy and need to prioritise main routes.

8. To consider and approve items for payment

a. ICO £40

b. Mrs H White Expenses £70 use of home

c. Mrs H White Salary £48.45 / PAYE £12.00

All agreed.

9. Planning

Pre - Planning Application - Rix Farm, PE32 2LR

Applicants discussed the potential application. There were no particular concerns from the councillors but it was advised to seek further advise from Breckland.
